Overview

The New York State Women, Inc. New Careerist Program is a mentoring program wherein the Candidates will have interacted with peers as well as have the opportunity to practice their networking and interpersonal relationship skills, interviewing and public speaking skills throughout the year.

The Local Chapter recognizes a member or potential member who meets the criteria as a New Careerist Candidate and develops a mentoring partnership with other members to support the candidates to develop personally, professionally and politically. The mentors should critique their skills, offer constructive criticism, nurture their strengths and guide them so that the learning experience helps their individual personal and professional growth.

The New Careerist Program concludes with the Speech Competition held at the Chapter, Region and State levels. Every Local chapter is invited to sponsor one candidate to the New York State Women, Inc. New Careerist Speech Competition which recognizes the accomplishments of any person who has changed careers within the last five (5) years, the reason for the change in career and the challenges faced.

Selection is based on written and biographical information, judge's interviews, group interaction and prepared speech competition on a specifically chosen topic as outlined in the following pages.

Speech Competition Guidelines

Eligibility

All New Careerist Program Speech Competition Candidates must meet the following criteria to be eligible:

- Membership in good standing of a Chapter of New York State Women, Inc. is required at the time of competing at the State Level, and
- Has not competed in this program using the same topic in the last three years
- Has changed careers within the last five (5) years
- Able to document the reason for the change in career and any challenges faced
- Present a five-minute speech on your experience to change your career and what inspired you to do so

Each New Careerist Candidate once selected by their Chapter is responsible for forwarding the following information for the State competition to the New Careerist State Chair (see Leadership Directory for contact information) by the deadline May 1.
