The day begins in the New Times Theater with coffee and networking before a presentation by the National Women’s Hall of Fame at 11 am. The Annual Women’s Day Luncheon will be held in the Empire Room at noon. This year as key note speaker will be motivational speaker Yvonne Conte, author of Cry, Laugh, Cook!. Conte will be addressing The Positive Power of Humor. The cost for the luncheon is $20 per person which includes Fair admission and parking.

In addition to the luncheon many special events have been planned during the day including the Fine Arts and Photo Exhibition on the third floor of the Art & Home Center as well as the Ghirardelli Chocolate Competition judging in the Culinary Arts area. During the entire day, various women’s advocacy organizations will be at a mini-fair set up in the Chevy Court Pavilion.
